

In response to the request for consultation, I would like to state that I fully support 'Hacked Off's' response and emphasise the need for a full implementation of Leveson.

At present, there is every danger that the no robust system will be put in place and that a press abuse of privacy will again become the norm.

Geoff Higgs