

What a shame if after all the work of the Leveson enquiry the press are allowed carte blanche to do whatever they please. Parliament must stand up against them or otherwise we are all at their mercy.

John Lanham