

Dear Panel,

Individuals and the public have been betrayed by the press both recently and over a long period of time. For this reason the Leveson report should now be implemented in full (as has been agreed) and section 40 of the Crime and Courts Act brought into effect as intended by Parliament. This is a case in which money, influence and power should not talk.

Yours sincerely,

John Martin