Dear Lord Stevenson,

I am writing to having noted your interest in the Data Protection Bill and matters related to press regulation.

It is disappointing that there continue to be attempts to prevent the recognition system from working, and it is frustrating that section 40 of the Crime and Courts Act has not been commenced.

Please let me know if you would find it useful to discuss these or any other matters further.

Yours sincerely,
