Subject: Remarks about the PRP by Sir Alan Moses

Dear Susie

In this recent speech <https://www.ipso.co.uk/media/1282/sir-alan-moses-after-dinner-speech-to-soe-in-carlisle-oct-2016.pdf>, Sir Alan Moses says

“The real and underlying danger of section 40, designed to make you pay up even if you have proved someone to be a liar in court, lies not in the purpose which it proclaims...that your regulator should be recognised by a body paid for by the State – last week it asked for more money from the State – but a far more fundamental and underlying current: that it is intended to herd you, force you into something you do not want to do.”

Could you please explain what he is referring to

Thanks

Best

Evan
