Dear Susie

Thank you for your letter of 27 October.

You and I were in the meeting between IPSO and the PRP. In that meeting David definitely made a reference to members of the public thinking they could complain to the PRP. It was not recorded in the note of the meeting because it was inconsequential. Whether it happened 'the other day' or 15 months ago (or indeed whether these could be the same thing) is also inconsequential. Alan mentioning it in a live interview is again inconsequential.

Regards

Matt
