

Graham Bland

I am a member of the public, a supporter of the Royal Charter and have a longstanding interest in ensuring that the Leveson Report is delivered fully and effectively. I have considered the consultation and read Hacked Off's submission to the PRP consultation, a copy of which is here. I am writing firstly to say that I back Hacked Off's submission, prepared with the input of victims of press abuse. I hope you will take note of this.

I am not including the boilerplate text from the hacked off team for your convenience as I am sure you have many copies already, but I agree with it all.

Press freedom is important and I support it fully, but they seem to forget that the price for freedom is responsibility.

Please get this right so that the press becomes accountable in a serious way.

It is difficult, but at the moment my belief is they can still say what they want , however they want and unless you happen to be rich there is practically nothing you can do about it apart from not buying newspapers.
