

Q1: In your opinion, has the new system for overseeing press regulation in the UK been a success or failure so far? Please explain your reasons.

So far, and as far as I am aware IPSO has not applied to PPP for recognition.

Yet Cameron refers to it as the new Independent Press Regulator as so does Grayling. The so called editors code is basic and does not give guidance as to what "intrusion" is. The PRP has its hands tied as applying for recognition is voluntary.
