

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am concerned that the recommendations of the Leveson Inquiry are being ignored because the media industry is blocking it. The government supported Leveson and his ideas should now be implemented. The PRP must remind Parliament that the 'guaranteed access to Justice Incentive' (section 40 of the Crime and Courts Act) should be brought into effect as Parliament had intended.

Thank you.

Kind regards,

D Sutton