

Q1: In your opinion, has the new system for overseeing press regulation in the UK been a success or failure so far? Please explain your reasons.

The whole system will continue to be a failure while adherence to regulators is voluntary and regulators have no power to punish media providers who break the rules

Q2: For publishers, joining an approved regulator is voluntary. For regulators, applying for Charter recognition is voluntary. In your opinion, what factors or issues will affect regulators' and publishers' decisions when they consider these choices.

Replace voluntary with mandatory would be a good start, otherwise the system is a "toothless tiger" made to fool the public and appease the establishment into thinking they have in some way implemented Levenson's recommendations.
