

Leveson was set up for a reason. After a lot of effort and thought he made a number of well considered recommendations. The Prime Minister and the Government have committed themselves to implement those recommendations. So let us please get on with the implementation.

Yours faithfully

K D Dabir-Alai