

As it stands, important sections of the press has decided to ignore the recommendations of the Leveson enquiry. Surprise, surprise, life is back to normal and that frankly is a disgrace. I want to register my disgust at this situation.

Peter Caswell