

Hello The Leveson report said:" If some or all of the Industry are not willing to participate in effective independent regulation, my own concluded view is to reject the notion that they should escape regulation altogether. I can not and will not recommend another last chance saloon for the press. With some measure of regret, therefore I am driven to conclude that the government should be ready to consider the need for a statutory backstop regulator being established, to ensure at the least that the press are subject to regulation that would require the fullest compliance with the criminal and civil law, if not also to ensure consequences equivalent to that would flow from an independent self-regulatory system" please take this into your considerations and also remember that YOU can recommend to parliament that the key guaranteed access to justice incentive (section 40 of the crime and courts act) should be brought into effect as parliament has intended thank you
